

I am writing to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election. Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, the company has an obligation by law to serve the public interest. Airing a biased program does not serve the public interest, nor does it conform to the goal of fair play. It is

When large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
